FOREIGN MEDALS.

1. Applications for permission to accept and wear Medals which not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander in Chief or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction: upon obtaining which they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Any British subject is at liberty to accept and wear a Foreign Medal, not being the decoration of a Foreign Order, bestowed by competent authority for acts of bravery in saving human life. An officer, soldier, marine or sailor must, however, first obtain permission from the Commander in Chief or the Lords of the Admiralty, as the case may be.

PENSIONS COMMUTATION ACT, 1869.

1. Any officer or other person under the Secretary of State for War desirous of commuting his half pay, retired pay, compensation allowance, superannuation or retirement allowance, under the Commutation Act of 1869, must make application in writing to the Under Secretary of State, War Office, stating his desire so to commute, and furnishing information as to his age, rank and the amount of his half pay, retired pay or other allowance.

2. If the Secretary of State shall think proper to recommend the commutation under the 4th clause of the 4th section of the Act, the officer will be so informed by that department, and his application will be forwarded to the Commutation Board for consideration.

3. The officer will then receive further instructions from that board.

4. The Commutation Board will require the Officer to give such information as to his health and habits as is usual in the case of persons proposing to assure their lives in assurance companies, and he will be required to submit himself for personal examination at the office of the board of the National Debt Office, 19, Old Jewry, in the city of London.

5. The basis of the commutation will be the following table, subject to an addition of years of age in the case of impaired lives, and to a deduction of years of age as an equivalent for the right to prospective increase of half pay, retired pay, or other allowance, if such right shall exist:—

6. If the Treasury accede to the application to commute, the amount of money to be paid in commutation of the half pay, retired pay, or other allowance, will be fixed by the Treasury on the recommendation of the Commutation Board. The applicant will then be informed of the amount, and he will have the option of withdrawing his application on the payment of a fee of £3: 3*s.* within thirty days after receiving that notice.

7. If the applicant shall not withdraw his application, and pay the above fee within that period, the decision will be considered final, and the commutation of pension will take place absolutely.

REGULATIONS for Naval and Military Officers who wish to become Settlers in the Colonies.

THE only colonies which now offer land privileges to Naval and Military Officers are British Columbia, Newfoundland, Natal, Ceylon and Western Australia.

The officers to whom such privileges are offered are—(a) Naval Officers of the Military Branch of all grades not lower than that of Sub-Lieutenants; (b) Military Officers of all grades not lower than that of Subalterns of seven years' standing; (c) Regimental Staff Officers; and (d) Medical Officers of both Services of not less than five years' standing.

The officers not entitled to land privileges are—Naval and Military Chaplains; Commissariat Officers; Subalterns under seven years' standing; Medical Officers of less than five years' standing; Midshipmen; Cadets; Warrant Officers of every description; Officers of any of the Civil Branches of the Navy or Army; and, lastly, Officers who have ceased for the space of three calendar months to belong to her Majesty's service and have not obtained the memorandum of rank and service hereinafter mentioned.

In British Columbia a certain quantity of land is granted in lieu of remission of purchase-money. In the four other above-named colonies, land must be purchased under the land regulations for the time being in force in the colony, and a certain amount of the purchase-money is then remitted. These allowances are regulated by the rank and length of service of the officer, as shown in the following scales:—

In British Columbia.	Acres.
Field Officers of 25 years' service, in the whole ...	600
Field Officers of 20 years' service, in the whole ...	500
Field Officers of 15 years' service, in the whole ...	400
Captains of 20 years' service and upwards, in the whole ...	400
Captains of 15 years' service or less, in the whole ...	300
Subalterns of 20 years' service and upwards, in the whole ...	300
Subalterns of 7 years' service and upwards, in the whole ...	200

In Newfoundland, Natal, Ceylon and Western Australia.
Field Officers of 25 years' service and upwards, in the whole ...	£600
Field Officers of 20 years' service and upwards, in the whole ...	500
Field Officers of 15 or less years' service, in the whole ...	400
Captains of 20 years' service and upwards, in the whole ...	400
Captains of 15 years' service or less, in the whole ...	300
Subalterns of 20 years' service and upwards, in the whole ...	300
Subalterns of 7 years' service and upwards, in the whole ...	200

Although these scales refer only to military officers, they apply also to naval officers who will receive allowances corresponding with their relative rank to officers in the Army, as prescribed in her Majesty's Order in Council of 11th June, 1863.

Any officer desirous of availing himself of these privileges must obtain a memorandum, if a naval man, from the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and if a military man, from the office of the General Commanding-in-Chief, specifying his rank, length of service and date of retirement. This document will not be issued more than once to the same officer, and it must, within one year from the date of the officer's retirement, be presented to the governor of one of the above-named colonies, otherwise the officer will not be entitled to any land privileges in the colony.

No document from the office of the Secretary of State is necessary.

As the sole object of the regulations is to encourage the bonâ fide settlement of naval and military officers in the colony, an officer, on presentation of his memorandum of rank and service to the governor, will receive in the first instance a location ticket only for the land which in British Columbia he may obtain, or which in either of the other colonies he may have purchased to the extent of his remission money.

At the expiration of two years from the date of such location ticket, the officer will receive in exchange for it a crown grant, provided he can show to the satisfaction of the governor, but not otherwise, that he is a bonâ fide settler in the colony, and has not only continuously resided therein since the receipt of his location ticket, but that he has resided on the land described in it for such length of time, and made such substantial and permanent improvements thereon of such description and value as the governor may have prescribed in any general notice published by his authority in the Government Gazette of the colony.

If application should not be made for a crown grant in exchange for the location ticket within a twelvemonth from the expiration of the two years for which it was issued, the officer's claim will be considered as extinguished, and the land will absolutely revert to the crown. No transfer of the land will be allowed or be valid until a crown grant thereof has been obtained.

But if an officer has obtained a memorandum of rank and service and dies before he can obtain a location ticket, the governor of the colony is authorized to make the memorandum available, as he may think proper, in favour of a child or children or other nearest representative of the deceased, who will then become entitled to the same rights and be subject to the same conditions as attached to the deceased. In case an officer dies after the location ticket has been obtained, the land to which it refers will be granted to his legal representative.

As the land regulations in the above-named colonies are liable at any time to be altered, her Majesty's Government cannot guarantee the permanence of these regulations, nor can the amount of remission in purchase-money made to officers be increased on account of any increased value which may at any time be set up upon the crown lands in the colony.

Our will and pleasure is that Article 5 of our Warrant for the Control Department be cancelled, and that the following Article be substituted in lieu thereof:—

5. Officers of the Control Department and of the Supply and Transport Sub-department shall officer and command the Army Service Corps.

Given at Our Court at Balmoral, this 29th day of August, 1870, in the 34th year of our Reign.

2. It is further notified that men who re-engage while serving are entitled to 1*l.* gratuity, and to two months' furlough, or to the allowance in lieu thereof, under the conditions laid down in Clause 46, Army Circulars, 1867.

3 They are not entitled to a free kit, nor to an allowance in lieu thereof, nor to any bounty, so long as none is issuable to recruits on enlistment.

Cl. 165.—Levy Money.

The adjutant of the regiment to which a depôt is attached, and not the officer in command of the depôt companies, is entitled to the levy money of 5*s.* granted by the Royal Warrant of 30th March, 1869 (Clause 40, Army Circulars, 1869).

By command of their Lordships,
VERNON LUSHINGTON.

AMMUNITION AND STORES FOR THE ARMAMENTS OF WORKS.

(Issued as a Special Army Circular on 7th September, 1870.)

Cl. 168. General Instructions.

The following instructions are issued by direction of the Secretary of State for War, for the guidance of officers commanding Royal Artillery, in preparing requisitions for ammunition and stores to maintain the equipment of the armaments of works.

1. The officer commanding the Royal Artillery, in a fortress or district, will have sole charge of all armaments that may exist in each battery of that fortress or district, as well as of all magazines in which any powder in Artillery charge is deposited, in order that there may be no divided responsibility.

2. In order to avoid the accumulation of ammunition and stores that may never be brought into requisition, the probability of certain parts of the works being abandoned owing to the altered requirements of the art of defence, or of their being re-armed with ordnance of a more powerful kind, will not be lost sight of by officers commanding Royal Artillery when preparing their requisitions for supplies to complete their proportions.

Ammunition.

3. The number of rounds of ammunition to be maintained in fortresses at home and abroad, for each piece of rifled ordnance, will be in accordance with the scale of proportion notified to general officers commanding districts, in Circular Letter dated Horse Guards, 25th February, 1870, viz.:—

7-inch breech-loading guns				...	...	...	...	200
64-pr.	,,	,,	,,	...	...	...	...	200

4. Ammunition for smooth-bore ordnance will, for the present, be maintained in accordance with the following reduced scale of proportion, the classification of the ordnance remaining unchanged, viz.:—

Pieces which received.					Will receive.
100 / 120	rounds.	...	...	...	...	60 rounds.
150	,,	...	...	...	...	75 ,,

300	,,	...	...	...	...	150 ,,
375	,,	...	...	...	...	180 ,,
750	,,	...	...	...	...	375 ,,

5. These scales of proportion will form the basis for calculating the entire quantity of ammunition to be maintained in works.

6. No reduction will, at present, be made in the proportions of ammunition for the defences in Canada, Nova Scotia, and Bermuda.

7. Of the total supply of ammunition to a fortress, fifteen per cent. will be, as a rule, in charge of the officer commanding the Royal Artillery, and the remainder in charge of the Control Department, to form the reserve.

8. If the total number of any particular description of gun mounted in the defences is very limited, or the positions occupied by certain pieces are of great importance, and the maximum number of rounds assignable to such pieces, under the proportions now authorized, appears in consequence to be inadequate; the officer commanding Royal Artillery will specially consider the advisability of submitting to the general officer commanding, for the approval of the Secretary of State, an augmented scale of proportion for the ammunition of such pieces.

9. The percentages in which the different kinds of projectiles forming 100 rounds are to be demanded, have been determined after much consideration, with reference to the different positions likely to be occupied by ordnance, and officers commanding Royal Artillery, in making requisition for ammunition, will strictly adhere to them.

10. Should the officer commanding the Royal Artillery, however, at any time require a less quantity of ammunition than 100 rounds for any one description of ordnance, he will be permitted to demand the full amount allowed per 100 rounds of projectiles, such as shrapnel shell, and case shot, which have low percentages.

Stores.

11. Detailed lists and proportions of all stores forming the equipment of the various descriptions of ordnance mounted in works, have been approved by the Secretary of State, and promulgated with Army Circular, dated December 1st, 1869.

12. The lists referred to in the preceding paragraph provide for the complete equipment of the armaments, and since the proportions therein sanctioned are considerably in excess of ordinary requirement, the Secretary of State has decided that, during peace, officers commanding Royal Artillery shall hold, and account for, a certain portion only, the remainder forming a reserve to be held by the Controller.

13. As a general rule, subject to such modifications as may be directed by the Secretary of State, one-half of all side-arms and small stores supplied for the ordnance, will be held in charge by the officer commanding the Royal Artillery in each fortress or district, the remainder being in the custody of the Control Department as a reserve.

14. Transporting axletrees and their limbers, drugs, and other articles rarely used, may be returned into store by the officer commanding the Royal Artillery when the occasion requiring them has passed.

15. Officers commanding Royal Artillery will periodically inspect the reserves, and report upon their condition.

16. The requisitions of officers commanding Royal Artillery for stores of a large and costly kind, and which are seldom used, such as heavy sling wagons, large drugs, transporting axletrees and their limbers, &c., will be carefully considered with reference to the extent of the command, since it will often occur that, owing to the favourable positions of store depôts, and the facilities for locomotion, a single supply will suffice for two or more districts in the same command.

17. A similar economy of stores will also be kept in view in demanding articles of which the application is general and irrespective of the nature of ordnance, and which are included amongst the battery stores, such as claw-hammers, portfire clippers, spanners, clinometers, linstocks, quadrants, &c. In preparing requisitions for stores of this class, the local signification of the term "battery" must sometimes be departed from, and the entire armament of an enclosed fort or of a portion of a line of defence, not too extensive for the convenient use of the stores, must be treated in all respects as though the pieces formed a single battery.

CONTROL DEPARTMENT.

Cl. 169.—Reports and Returns relating to Artillery Materiel.

1. The Surveyor-General of the ordnance being charged with the duties relating to the provision and supply of Artillery Matériel, all reports and returns connected therewith from officers commanding Royal Artillery and others, will in future be addressed to the director of Artillery and stores, for submission to the Surveyor-General.

2. Duplicate copies of the periodical returns will be transmitted under cover to the Deputy Adjutant-General, Royal Artillery.

3. Circular 424 is hereby cancelled.

Cl. 170.—Storage of Compressed Gun-cotton.

1. Control officers are informed that compressed gun-cotton may be stored in shell rooms.

2. When it is placed on board ship for transport it should be treated in the same way as filled shells.

Cl. 171.—Sea Kits.

1. Troops proceeding to India viâ the Suez Canal will be supplied with the sea kit laid down in section 2, clause 121, Army Circulars 1868, excepting as follows:—

A water bottle will not be issued.
Soap, yellow, 5 pieces will be issued instead of 4.
Soap, marine, 5 pieces will be issued instead of 4.
Tobacco, 2 lbs. will be issued instead of 1½ lb.

Cl. 172.—Repair of Floor-covering round Billiard Tables.

It is hereby notified with reference to paragraph 2, Clause 74, Army Circulars, 1868, that the kamptulicon, or other floor-covering round billiard tables, will be repaired at the public expense when damaged by fair wear.

Cl. 173.—Mop Heads.

When mops are given in to control stores for exchange, the heads or "thrums" must invariably be produced; but as the Barrack Regulations, Article 160, page 93, direct that such "thrums" are not to be stored, control officers will take the necessary steps for their immediate destruction.

Cl. 174.—Return of Casualties.

W. O. Form 1562 (monthly return of the control establishment at ——— on the 1st, &c.) having been altered to:—

W. O. Form 1562, return of the casualties in the Control Department at —— during the month of —— 18—;

Control officers will make the above alteration in the headings of any copies of the form they may have in hand.

ERRATUM in Clause 132 of 1870.

The Royal Warrant alluded to in paragraph 3 of Clause 132, Army Circular 1870, should be that of 29th June, 1867, not 29th June, 1869.

(Signed) EDWARD LUGARD.

Medical officers not attached to regiments are first to obtain the permission of the military authorities of the district in which they are serving, and are then to apply, through the principal medical officer, to the Director General of the Army Medical Department, who will forward the application to the Adjutant General, by whom the grant of such leave will be notified to the district authorities, and to the Director General, who will inform the officer (through the principal medical officer).

II. Medical officers attached to regiments are first to obtain the permission of the principal medical officer, and are then to apply to their commanding officers, who will forward the application to the district military authorities for transmission to the Adjutant General, by whom the grant of such leave will be notified, through the district authorities, to the regimental medical officer.

Officers commanding, in recommending medical officers for leave of absence on private affairs, will be careful to ascertain that the distribution and state of health of their corps, as well as the arrangements for the carrying on of all the regimental medical duties, are such as to justify their recommendation.

(Appendix A.)

The regimental board to verify a man's service on discharge will ask him if he will join the 1st Class Reserve, and insert the question and answer in the second page of the proceedings in manuscript till a new printed form is issued. Great care should be taken in inserting the full address of the man's intended residence on the 4th page.

When the address of a discharged man has been notified by the Adjutant General to the staff officer of pensioners of a district, he will take the necessary steps to enrol the man.

Staff officers of pensioners will report, every Friday, to the inspecting field officers, the number of men enrolled by them for the first class reserve in each week, and inspecting field officers will insert the number of men enrolled in their respective districts in their weekly return (W. APPENDIX (A.) TO G.O. 95.

BY AUTHORITY.

FIRST CLASS ARMY RESERVE.

NOTICE.

1. Soldiers who have been discharged from her Majesty's service are invited to join the first class army reserve.

2. The soldier must be under 34 years of age and must have served at least three years in the Army.

3. He must be of good character and medically fit for service.

4. Fulfilling these conditions, he may join the first class army reserve for five years.

5. Whilst in that force, he will receive fourpence (4d.) a-day quarterly in advance; he may continue to live in his present abode, or in any part of the United Kingdom, and to follow his present trade or calling.

He will be liable to drill occasionally, as stated in the attestation paper, but the times of drill will be so arranged as to interfere as little as possible with his ordinary trade or occupation.

6. A soldier serving in the first class army reserve is liable, in case of imminent national danger, or of great emergency, to be recalled to service with that branch of the regular army in which he has previously served, until legally discharged, but not beyond six months after peace has been next proclaimed.

7. If he is recalled to the regular army, he will receive the full daily pay of the rank he held in the army at the time of his discharge, up to the rank of serjeant inclusive. He will receive the free kit of a soldier; and, if he is a married man, a daily allowance will be made to his wife and children, when separated from him in consequence of his being on service in the field.

8. If recalled to the regular army, the whole period of his former service in the army and in the reserve force will be allowed to reckon in full towards good conduct pay and pension. He will not be entitled to pension for service in the reserve force unless recalled to the regular army.

9. Discharged soldiers, who are willing to join the first class army reserve, will immediately notify their desire to the staff officer of pensioners nearest to their present abode, forwarding at the same time their address, and stating the date and cause of their discharge from their late regiment. Instructions will then be sent to them for their future guidance.

When applying in person, they should bring with them their parchment certificate.

Recruiting.

THE ARMY ENLISTMENT ACT, 1870.

HER MAJESTY'S SERVICE AND ITS ADVANTAGES.

By the "Army Enlistment Act, 1870," a recruit has the choice of enlisting either for long or short service in the Regular Army.

1st.—LONG SERVICE.

He may enlist for twelve years in the Regular Army, at the end of which, if he has conducted himself well and is allowed by his commanding officer, he may re-engage for nine years more to complete a service of twenty-one years.

On his discharge, after completing the twenty-one years, he will receive a pension for life.

2nd.—SHORT SERVICE.

He may enlist for six years in the Regular Army, and six years in the First Class Reserve.

After the first six years are passed he will be able to return to civil life, to live wherever he likes within the United Kingdom, and to follow any trade or occupation he pleases.

During the last six years he will receive the pay of fourpence (4*d*.) a day, in return for which he will be liable to be drilled occasionally, but the Act of Parliament provides that the times shall be so arranged as to interfere as little as possible with his ordinary trade or occupation. He will also be liable, in case of imminent national danger or of great emergency, to be recalled to service with that branch of the Regular Army in which he has previously served.

If during the second six years an emergency occurs, and he is recalled to the service, he will receive the full daily pay of a soldier, and his reserve service will reckon towards good conduct pay, just as if he had served continuously in the Army, and, if at the end of his limited engagement he re-engage, his reserve service will count year for year towards pension on discharge.

Whilst serving, the soldier is lodged and to a great extent clothed at the public expense; he gets better and cheaper food than he could in civil life; and when ill he has the best medical treatment. From the beginning of his service he may, with care, have three shillings a week to spend after paying all expenses, and he can, by good conduct, gain an increase to his pay of—

1*d*.	a day	after	two	years'	service.
2*d*.	„	„	six	„	„
3*d*.	„	„	twelve	„	„
4*d*.	„	„	eighteen	„	„
5*d*.	„	„	twenty-three	„	„
6*d*.	„	„	twenty-eight	„	„

A well-educated and deserving soldier has every prospect of promotion, which gives him a further increase to his pay.

The soldier has the advantage of a savings bank, and the use of a library and recreation room, and, in most places, other means of amusement. In many stations he has time and opportunities given him of learning a trade, whereby he may earn additional pay whilst in the Army, and be the better prepared for gaining his livelihood when he leaves the service.

The usual periods of serving abroad are so arranged that the soldier has a fair proportion of home as well as of foreign service.

If the soldier be wounded in action, or in any way maimed in the performance of his military duties, he becomes entitled to a pension.

The deserving soldier on his discharge is well fitted, from his regular habits, for many situations—such as those in the police, on the railroads, or other employments in civil life—and a good character on discharge from the service gives him the best testimonial for such employment.

There are few callings in civil life open to unskilled labour which promise to a steady and deserving young man such advantages as are offered to the good and meritorious soldier in Her Majesty's Service.
